

WITH the beginning of holy week, society is at a dead standstill, and although much is planned for the gay Easter week, there will be almost no social activity during the next seven days. The past week has numbered few events of any importance, as everyone seems to be saving strength for the gaieties of the spring season. The date set for the last of the season's assemblies is Thursday, April 23, and this will be the last big dancing event of the year. A hop at the post is planned for immediately after Lent, too, but the spring hops, will, of course, be more informal than those of the winter. A number of the people who are out of the city are planning to return for the early summer, so there will be a great deal during the spring time in the way of entertaining.

One of the most beautifully appointed and originally planned dinners ever given at the Alta club was that of last evening, at which Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Reber were the guests of honor, and Mr. J. H. White was the host. The table was of an oval shape and it was spread in the gold room, covers being laid for twenty-two. A decoration distinctively new was seen on the long table, where two immense hearts formed of the pink tulle and outlined in carnations and plumosa showed the initials of the bride and groom. May baskets of violets and spring flowers were the souvenirs for the ladies, that of the bride being filled with brides' roses and lilies of the valley. Menu cards exquisitely hand-decorated were provided for the men. Mr. White was assisted in receiving his guests by Mrs. James W. Neill, and at the conclusion of the dinner the party repaired to the Neill home on State street for coffee. The guests present to meet Mr. and Mrs. Reber were Governor and Mrs. Wells, Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Siegel, Mr. and Mrs. David S. Murray, Dr. and Mrs. H. N. Mayo, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Pearson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Glendinning, Mrs. Neill, Miss McMillan, Miss Creary, Captain Creary, Lieutenant Merrill and Dr. Wherry.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Carter announce the engagement of their daughter, Bertha Kay, to Mr. Thomas Gouldstone Griffin. The marriage will take place the latter part of the month. Miss Carter is well known in local society circles and has only recently returned from a lengthy visit with Captain and Mrs. Styer in California. Mr. Griffin has made many warm friends during his stay in Salt Lake, and a wide circle of friends will be glad to learn of the happiness of the young people.

An engagement in which a large number of friends are interested was that announced during the week of Miss Lucile Taylor and Mr. Richard Romney. The marriage will be a quiet one, taking place next Thursday morning.

The formal opening of the Country club will take place next Saturday, and Mrs. W. Montague Ferry will act as hostess. The affair will be a number are planning to spend the afternoon there.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira O. Rhodes left last evening for a visit of two months in the east.

Dr. and Mrs. Hepburn leave today for the coast, where they will spend the coming eight weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Neill are making a brief visit with friends in Boston, but will return to New York for some time before coming home.

Mr. J. F. Grant and daughter, Florence, left yesterday for a week's visit in Denver.

The Misses Lulu and Lena Trane spent last week in this city visiting friends.

Mr. Roscoe M. Breeden will leave the latter part of the week for a month's business trip to Chicago.

The Ladies' Aid society of the First Congregational church met in the parlors of the church on Tuesday, from 11 to 3 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Melton entertained at cards Wednesday evening. Prizes were won by Mrs. Burns and Mr. Clinton.

With the refreshments were passed April fool pranks, some seasoned with cayenne pepper, Worcestershire sauce and turpentine, others filled with cotton and coal.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Burns, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Melton, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton, Mr. and Mrs. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Warr, Young, Jennie Sands, Jaensch, Emily Grimstead, Janie Grimstead, Rose Morris, Grace Vincent, Helena Fritsch, Hulda Fritsch, Messrs. Barker, A. W. Smith, Dr. Behle, Jack Berkhoel, Lovell Ridenour.

The Misses Bachman and Twelves of Provo spent yesterday in the city.

The J. G. W. will meet next Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Joanna Melton, 854 East Fourth street.

W. B. Levy, wife and son have returned after a six weeks' vacation in southern California.

Mrs. J. Ruel has returned from a successful dramatic tour.

Last Thursday afternoon Mrs. Lela Fowler entertained at a luncheon for Mrs. W. F. Knox of Beaver. The following ladies enjoyed the afternoon:

Mrs. W. F. Knox, Mrs. H. Taggart of San Francisco, Mrs. K. O. Kyes, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Peters and Miss Fowler.

Misses Ida and Verga Cassin are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Hines.
